

Riverine Stewardship in California

Marc Commandatore
California Department of Water Resources,
D-IRWM Riverine Ecosystem Section,
Riverine Stewardship Program, Fish Passage
Improvement Program, Urban Streams Restoration
Program

2017 Riparian Summit: Confluence to Influence October 17, 2017

Riverine Stewardship Program

- ▶ Implement stream restoration
- ▶ Reduce flood risk
- ▶ Improve riparian habitats
- ▶ Improve fish migration
- ▶ Engage all communities
- ▶ Provide technical and financial assistance

More on the Program

- ▶ Combined Fish Passage and Urban Streams Restoration Programs
- ▶ Funded by Prop 84, 50, and 13 ($4.6 Million)
- ▶ FY 2016/2017 FY Budget
- ▶ Enhanced Budget in FY 2017/2018

Opportunities For the Riverine Stewardship Program

Partnerships

- ▶ Knowing our Partners “Why”
- ▶ Community Vision and Goals
- ▶ Respectful of the community’s values
- ▶ Help build the concept to a project
- ▶ Building Capacity
- ▶ Enduring projects

What Have We Done?

- ▶ Creek and River Locations
- ▶ Committed Funding
- ▶ USRP Projects
- ▶ New Partnerships

Technical Assistance

- ▶ Planning
- ▶ Design
- ▶ Implementation
- ▶ Monitoring

Morrison Creek

- ▶ Provide technical assistance
- ▶ Identifying community assets
- ▶ Reconnect the community to resources
- ▶ Educate the community
- ▶ Build a community network
- ▶ Enhance the stream environment
- ▶ Improve public safety

Morrison Creek

What can we do on Morrison Creek?

Morrison Creek

A Riparian Parting Shot

